CITY GRANTS BUILDING PERMIT CONSTRUCTION TEN SMALL COTTAGES

To Cost Fifteen Thousand Dollars—To Be Located Corner Front and Sycamore Street—Christian Capdeville Outlines to City Council What is Planned and Contemplated to Be Accomplished.

At a meeting of the Board of Mayor and City Commissioners held at the city hall Tuesday morning the communication of Christian Capdeville, of New Orleans, was read and received.

Mr. Capdeville asked that the interests he represents be permitted to build ten cottage homes, on ground corner Front and Sycamore streets, and Sycamore, formerly Goodchildren street. Building permit states building would cost $15,000.

Horace Farr Contractor and Builder

The permit was granted and construction of buildings will begin at once, Horace Farr, Bay St. Louis contractor, having already secured the contract and will lose no time in starting work, he stated.

Lot Unimproved For Many Years.

The lot is well known. It has been vacant for many years. For the last thirteen years it has been assessed to E. J. Rovira, who, according to records has paid taxes on same in amount of $300 annually, from which he drew no revenue. Its last assessment was $4500.

Christian Capdeville Announces.

Mr. Capdeville in presenting the petition, since there was a counter one by residents of the neighborhood, said he would build nothing on this lot that would be objectionable, but, on the contrary, it would be an enhancement of values both to the immediate neighborhood and city as well.

Character and Details of Building.

The Echo presents his petition in full as it gives details in full as to the type of building, character of material to be used. It will be noted it is all high grade, the buildings are "homes" as termed in the petition and not to be confused with tourist camp houses or cabins. Each building will be a home in itself. Each a separate and complete unit.

September 3rd, 1940.

To the Honorable Board of Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Bay St. Louis.

Gentlemen:—According to your request that I make you a detailed statement of the improvements that I intend to make on my lot here in Bay St. Louis, I beg to advise that it is my intention and purpose at this time and have had plans and specifications drawn for the construction of ten small homes and one office building, these homes to be constructed of wood, weather-boarded outside, painted white with the proper trimming. The inside consists of one living room 14 ft. 6 inches by 10 ft. 4 inches, one bedroom 10 ft. 6 inches by 11 ft. 9 inches, a front porch 9 ft. 6 inches by 7 ft. 2 inches, hall 3 ft. 5 inches by 12 ft. 8 inches, kitchen 7 ft. by 9 ft. 4 inches and bath, screened throughout to be plastered and finished floors; equipped with gas and electricity, frigidaires, hot and cold water and completely furnished in every detail. That all wiring in each of these homes will be done with Romex wire and all wiring will come up to insurance specifications. Dimensions of each one of these homes to be 21 ft. by 28 ft. 5 inches. These homes will be approximately 30 feet apart. They will be arranged in a semi-circle and immediately in front of each home will be constructed a drive-way, the road to begin and end on Goodchildren street and in the center of this arc will be a shrubbery court, approximately 50 feet wide in which I intend to have planted flowers and other ornamental shrubs. There will also be constructed together with these homes, a small office building in keeping with the homes. In this office building there will also be accommodations for the attendant who is on duty. These attendants will be of the highest type person available and will be instructed that no unusual noises or disturbances will be tolerated.

It is my purpose in constructing these homes to cater to only the very best class of people and to cater more to families than any other type of person renting to them on a weekly or monthly basis. My primary motive in constructing these homes being to operate a first class business for two reasons: It is my belief that the better class of people that patronize my business will encourage people from the same community in which they live to patronize my place of business and further that I want to build something that will be an ornament and a tribute to Bay St. Louis and to run a type of business that will be beneficial to the merchants of Bay St. Louis. This, in my opinion is a form of advertisement that Bay St. Louis could not purchase regardless of what they might spend as it can be clearly seen that the class of people that I intend to cater to have been in Bay St. Louis a short time. Bay, like I, will naturally fall in love with the environment of the city, and in all probability a great number of these people will eventually make Bay St. Louis their permanent residence. With the two great institutions that you have in Bay St. Louis there is no doubt that many of the parents of some of these boys and

FLOWER SHOW FOR NOV 9-10TH.

Bay-Waveland Garden Club Sponsors—Meeting Held Thursday 12—Plans Discussed.

On last Thursday afternoon, the Bay-Waveland Garden Club met for the month of September at the home of Mrs. James A. Evans on North Beach Boulevard with Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Alice Buckley as joint hostesses.

Mrs. George R. Rea, president, after an absence of more than a month from Bay St. Louis, was again in the chair and an excellent attendance was noted.

After routine business was conducted, the ladies discussed plans and arrangements for the Fall Flower Show, last year's show having been such a huge success, and the dates of November 9th and 10th were set for the flower show for 1940.

Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab gave an interesting talk on the effect of salt spray on shrubs and plants and enumerated the types of shrubs which survive salt spray, a subject which everyone appreciated with so many of our plants and shrubs so drastically affected by the spray from the high tides of the recent storm.

That most important question—zoning—was the principal matter discussed and City Attorney Lucien M. Gex gave a very lucid explanation of the legal procedure necessary for having an ordinance passed whereby residential sections may be zoned against the erection of undesirable buildings. A committee of three members was appointed to confer with Mayor Blaise and Commissioners W. L. Bourgeois and H. Grady Perkins to endeavor to have the city pass such an ordinance. Mrs. John N. Stewart, Mrs. Leo W. Seal and Miss Margaret Green were appointed on the committee, and were instructed to see the city fathers on next Monday when they met.

The Evans home, large and inviting, was an ideal setting for the social hour enjoyed by the members of the club after the meeting and Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Buckley served refreshments in their usual and well-known charming manner.

1941 Automobile Tags To Be Available Tuesday, October 1.

Automobile owners are reminded that tags for their cars will be available October 1 at the local sheriff's and tax-collector's offices. The tags for the new year carry the name of the county from which they are issued. Ours carry "Hancock County" and all tags are black with white numerals. They were manufactured in Mississippi by the Columbus Marble Works.

Girls will stay at my place when visiting their children.

With this before you, you can see that it is my desire and purpose to bring something to Bay St. Louis that in my opinion it certainly needs and which will be an asset to the community at large.

Respectfully submitted,

COLORED TRUCK DRIVER MEETS DEATH AS TRUCK OVERTURNS

Sylvester Wright, 26, Killed When Truck Strikes Cow On Kiln Road.

On last Friday afternoon, Sylvester Wright, twenty-six year-old negro truck driver of Pensacola, Florida, was almost instantly killed when the truck which he was driving, loaded with lumber for delivery to a barge on the river, struck a cow on the Kiln Road and overturned upsetting the lumber which pinned Wright under it.

The injured man was brought to the local King's Daughters Hospital by Leroy Ora who was passing at the time of the accident, but was pronounced dead upon arrival here, and the body turned over to the Fahey Undertaking Company. The man had received severe chest injuries causing hemorrhage, two broken legs and a broken arm. His parents in Florida were notified and the remains were interred here on Monday.

Wright was accompanied by Oswald Ladner, white, who was not injured. He was an employee of Adolph Ora.

A coroner's jury was impaneled by Constable Price who pronounced a verdict of accidental death. Serving on the jury were: Judge Leon Capdeville, Louis Banderet, Warren Traub, Anthony Compretta, Mrs. E. Craft and Misses Hazel and Agnes Hoda.

Trio Return Home From 10-Day Visit

Returning from a ten-day trip this week, Emilio Cue, A. B. Vassalli and Norman Benigne, report a pleasant journey and enjoyable visit to Nashville and Louisville as their chief objectives. They attended the Tennessee State Fair at Nashville and viewed the famous harness races at Louisville, where they saw some of the finest horse flesh in the country, they said. A high feature of the trip was a visit to Cave City from which point they visited Mammoth Cave, government owned and controlled. The $2.00 fee to visit was well worth many times the price, they said, and they saw the wonders of the cave, wonder of which is not over rated.

NATIONAL CONGRESS OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS CHICAGO MEET, SEPT. 18-21

Mississippi Represented by Mrs. C. C. Clark, State President, Columbia and Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Chairman Of International Relations, Bay St. Louis—National Plans and Ideals Added to Program For Coming Administration

The Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers is adding national plans and ideals to its program of service for the coming administration. The annual fall meeting of the Board of Managers of the National Congress will be held in Chicago, September 18-21. Mississippi will be represented at this meeting by the State President, Mrs. C. C. Clark, of Columbia, and the National Chairman of International Relations, Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Bay St. Louis. Mississippi is unusually fortunate among the states to have two representatives on the National Board of Managers. In addition to the business sessions of the Board Mrs. Clark and Mrs. McDonald will attend special conferences of state presidents and of national chairmen. The National President, Mrs. William Kletzer, Oregon, has issued the following statement on the position of the parent teacher organizations all over the United States in the present world situation:

"The National Congress firmly believes in the ability and power of our regularly designated Authorities to deal competently with emergencies as they arise, and to effect the necessary legislation to meet those emergencies."

"The National Congress likewise believes that there is no time quite so important for focusing attention on the needs of children as the time when the Nation is involved in a great emergency. Children feel the insecurity of their elders, and doubly so when the normal activities to which they have become accustomed are withdrawn. That is why it is very important for an organization such as ours to help to the line on its regular program of interest and ac-

PAINTING OF FIRST METHODIST CHURCH AND ANNEX BUILDINGS

Church Shows Spirit of Progress and Civic Enhancement—Exemplary Activity.

Work of painting the First Methodist Church was started this week by contractor, George Heitzman & Son, who will also paint the community house adjoining and the parsonage.

All three buildings will be done in white, with two coats. The parsonage, said Pastor Boyles, has not been painted in many years, while the community house was built only seven years ago when it was last painted. The interior of the church was repainted and renovated quite recently and the church roofed.

Painting of all three buildings, is a major improvement and will add to the appearance of our city and to that particular neighborhood.

The cost of painting was financed by members of the church and, the pastor says, also with the aid of a number of public-spirited citizens who generously gave their bit.

CANNERY OPENING DELAYED

Operators and Owners Fail To Agree on Price To Be Paid For Shrimp—Livelihood Impaired.

With the shrimp season well on its way, it is to be deplored that negotiations between Coast packers and the different sea food unions, and associations on the price of shrimp have delayed the opening of the local cannery, the Bay Canning Company, operated by Mr. Charles J. Moore, and which provides work for a large number of persons each year.

A number of prominent coast business men interested in the packing of seafood have met together on several occasions and endeavored by various means to settle the controversy as to the price of shrimp, the Gulf Coast Shrimpers and Oyster-men's Association having fixed price of $8.00 a barrel, a price which the packers claim is prohibitive and at which it is impossible for them to operate with success.

Divorcees In Harrison County Not Our Victor Lizanas of Bay-Waveland

Mrs. Lillie Mae Lizana wants a divorce from Victor Lizana and the custody of their two children on the grounds of the defendant's habitual drunkenness. They were married, she states in March, 1934, and separated last June.

The foregoing news item appeared in a Gulfport newspaper a few days ago, and, according to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lizana, of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, has proven very embarrassing to them. The applicants to become divorce are not our estimable friends by no means. There is no more devoted and happier couple than our own Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lizana and no one should even for a minute think the news refers to them.

Leo E. Kenney Loses Mother at Her Home in Plainfield, New Jersey

Mr. Leo E. Kenney was called to Plainfield, N. J., by a sad intelligence, a message announcing the passing of his mother, Mrs. Andrew Kenney, who died at her home Friday, the 13th. Being away and unable to locate him the message did not reach him until the following day, when he took a plane from Atlanta, Ga., and flew to his destination, arriving in time for the funeral, which took place Monday.

Mrs. Kenney is survived by two sons, Leo E. of Bay St. Louis, and Edmund Kenney of Plainfield. Mr. Kenney passed away about five years ago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kenney were here some years back and are remembered by quite a number of people they met. The news of the passing away of this estimable and aged lady will be received with sorrow. Mr. Kenney has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

At a recess meeting held September 13, The Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, American Legion went on record as favoring a Home Guard Unit to be set up in Hancock county. This unit will be operated under the sponsorship of the American Legion, and will replace the National Guard which will be called to active service.

Every ex-service man in Hancock county should join the Clement R. Bontemps Post 139 now and become a part of the defense forces of your county, said Wm. Roger Garcia, the commander. We expect to organize this unit with the support of the State Department of the American Legion, subject to call for any emergency that should arise by the Sheriff of the county, the Governor of Mississippi, or the War Department.

This Home Guard Unit will be set up on a volunteer basis, subject to call only during an emergency. Officers will be selected to serve as follows:

Colonel, commanding officer.
Lieutenant Colonel, second in command.
Captain, Adjutant.
Staff officers will be:
Majors: In charge of intelligence.
Majors: In charge of Supply and communications.
Majors: In charge of plans and training.
Captains: Air Service.
Captains: Engineer Service.
Captains: Artillery Service.

Units will be set up at Kiln, Logtown and Bay St. Louis. These units will consist of platoons. Two platoons being set up in Bay St. Louis. Each platoon will consist of about forty men, and will be under the direct leadership of a second lieutenant.

Non veterans will be accepted for volunteer service in the Home Guard service, and should send their names in to the Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, and they will be advised later what unit they will be assigned to.

The Home Guard will require no training, but non veterans will be instructed by veterans regarding military duties. Meetings are held every Friday at 245 Washington st., at 8 P. M. Every veteran is urged to attend these meetings and become familiar with the activities of the American Legion.

Mr. Charles Zerr of the A. & G. Theater, who was the victim of an automobile accident at Pass Christian recently, while sustaining a broken bone below the knee, is able to be up and out on the streets with the aid of crutches. Extremely popular with all who know him, townfolks are glad to see him about again.

However, a number of inquiries have been made direct, and, to say the least, is not only embarrassing but most humiliating.

SENATOR HARRISON'S ACTIVITY.

Senator Pat Harrison's activity and successful work at Washington for interest "back home" has always existed and our own "Pat" has been one of the most useful representatives the State has ever sent to Washington.

Saturday a telegram to The Echo stated President Roosevelt had approved WPA project for improvement Bay St. Louis seawall in amount $17,887.00. On Monday a telegram from Washington carried information to the effect presidential approval had been given allotment $161,910.00 "to improve roads and bridges in Hancock county."

It is indeed gratifying to learn Senator Harrison has given notice of his intention to be a candidate to succeed himself two years hence. The State could ill afford to do without him.

Both representatives in Senate and House of Congress are tireless workers and Hancock county and this part of the State gets its share when allotments of funds are passed around. Of course, these things have to be gone after, and Senator Harrison is certainly a "go-getter."

THE BANE OF EVERY NEWSPAPER MAN.

THE other day we ruefully observed that typographical errors (the bane of newspapermen's existence) always seem to make horrible, perverted sense. Since then, we've run across a piece from the Concordia, Kansas, Blade-Empire, which points out how badly one misspelled word can butcher a well-meaning sentence:

For instance, these slips:
"Mr. Kellogg was called to take in the nasal conference."

"And they were married, and lived happily even after."

"Ten years after they were married they had their first child."

"The bride was attired in a gown of white wool batiste and satin and she carried a bouquet of pink roses."

"Here the bridal couple stood, facing the floral setting, and exchanged vows."

And, worse luck, they always seem to crop up in wedding write-ups.

THIS IS NOT A DAILY NEWSPAPER.

THE deadline for material for columns of The Sea Coast Echo, is Wednesday evening. After that only legal and display advertisements and news of the utmost importance are handled.

There is entirely too much matter offered for publication on Thursday morning, working a hardship on the workmen, though willing, can do no more than physically possible.

The Echo plant is admirably equipped with ample and the latest of automatic machinery, but even at that each machine has to be manned and each machine can do so much and no more within a given time.

The Echo is printed every Thursday afternoon and evening for Friday morning publication. Subscribers living in the rural districts wish their papers Friday morning—to which they are entitled.

While The Echo is not a daily newspaper and never planning or hoping to complete with one, it is not equipped and has not sufficient force to produce a newspaper in one day—like the dailies. That is, apparently, what some of our readers believe, without realizing the impracticability and impossibility of such accomplishment.

We ask the co-operation of the public. Many have news items and federal project articles in their possession during the early part of the week. However, they invariably appear with a raft of such material Thursday morning, accompanied by profuse apologies. Excuses that are self-accusing.

The same applies to social items. It might not be generally known but even big metropolitan newspapers have their deadline.

Bay St. Louis social news items for Sunday Times-Picayune must be mailed on Tuesday night before Sunday following—four days in advance.

We are of the opinion that the great "thief of time," procrastination, is largely responsible for this condition of delinquency. And not due to a lack of knowing or better thinking.

AIRPLANES ARE SAFE.

THE recent crash of a commercial plane in Virginia, in which resulted in the sudden death of twenty-five persons was the first fatal passenger plane accident since March, 1939.

For more than seventeen months the airlines of the nation had been carrying thousands of passengers without injury. Their record of safety passes public notice it is only the fatalities that make the headlines.

Edgar S. Gorrell, president of the Air Transport Association, says that the airlines carried 3,100,000 passengers 1,800,000,000 passenger miles without a fatality or injury to any person.

Hodding Carter, editor of New York's newest daily "P. M." and publisher of the Greenville Democrat Times, is stepping along the road of literature. He has three books under contract for publication. This is distinction for any fellow young in age and literature," comments the McComb Enterprise.

BASEBALL STEALS THE SHOW.

THE attention of many Americans are now turned to the pennant races, with the American league, for a change, furnishing the thrills of the season.

For years the New York Yankees held a strangle-hold upon the pennant in the junior circuit but this year there is a different story to tell. Cleveland, Detroit and New York are fighting it out, on the home stretch. The Yankees only in the running by making a remarkably effective drive on the turn.

Undoubtedly, baseball remains the great pastime for many Americans. Football, with its more spectacular proceedings, has attracted millions of fans and has about ousted baseball from the athletic program of many small schools and communities.

This is unfortunate, in the opinion of this writer. Baseball should not be overlooked by those interested in the young people of today. The American Legion, aided by the organized leagues, deserve the thanks of the public for their fine work in putting on the annual junior baseball competition.

One reason why baseball has shown a declining interest is in the failure of many schools and communities to provide adequate baseball fields for the young boys of the proper age. Years ago any street, or vacant lot, served as a baseball field but the advent of automobile traffic and the growth of towns has tended to restrict the opportunities for playing this fine game.

OUR FOOLISH DISARMAMENT.

IN the early twenties the United States and Great Britain gave the world an example of disarmament by agreement.

Navies were reduced and construction restricted. The English-speaking people were slow to understand the challenge that other nations were preparing. They let others build new ships but they held off until it was almost too late.

The United States is now engaged in building the greatest navy in its history at a tremendous cost. The half-constructed battleships that were destroyed in the twenties would serve this country well today and save the people many millions of dollars.

However, let's not find fault with events of the past. Rather let us learn the lesson well and refrain from similar foolishness in the future.

BATTLESHIPS PREFERRED.

A FEW years ago there were defense experts who insisted that the airplane had rendered the battleship obsolete.

During the present war in Europe the performance of airplanes has been far above pre-war expectations but no battleships have been sunk by bombs.

Meanwhile, every first-class nation on the face of the globe is speeding the construction of bigger and better battleships. The United States is taking the lead.

With fifteen battleships in the water, ten under actual construction and seven others just placed under contract, this country will have, in five years, thirty-two battleships. At least one-third of them will be giants, of 45,000 tons or more.

FIT SUBJECT FOR RETIREMENT.

SENATOR Ashurst of Arizona, got beat last week by an opponent who made an issue of Ashurst's opposition to the conscription bill. Senator Ashurst was a democrat and had served five terms, but that kind of piddling politics was too much for his supporters to stomach.

Democrat or Republican, it's a good thing he is retired.

It has been granted by everybody that we've got to have an army. That danger from Nazi Germany is no idle threat in the Atlantic, and from Japan in the Pacific it has been already demonstrated as merely waiting on the European war.

Any lawmaker who puts off doing something—doing it in hurry, too—under those circumstances, is a fit subject for retirement.

CITY AND COUNTRY VERSION.

THE Columbian-Progress tells about a boy who had left the farm and got a job in the city. He wrote a letter to his brother who stayed on the farm telling him the joys of city life. In it he said: "Thursday we autoed out to the country club where we golfed until dark, then we picnicked and later motored to a nearby beach where we week ended." The brother left on the farm wrote back: "Yesterday we bugied to town and baseballed all the afternoon. Today we muled out to the cornfield and geehawed until sundown. Then we suppered and piped for a while. After that we staircased up to our room and bedstedded until the clock fived."

FINDS GREAT-UNCLE'S GRAVE.

ON a dark night, following the recent National Guard maneuvers, Sergeant Charles W. Farmer, of Kingston, N. C., stumbled over a grave on the battlefield of Vicksburg, where his outfit camped on the way home from Louisiana training grounds.

On the tombstone he read: "Lieut. William Farmer, 81st Illinois Regiment." It was the grave of his great-uncle who had not been heard from since he went to war more than seventy-two years ago.

FORMING HOME GUARD UNITS.

THE news column of this week's Echo carries an article telling of the organization of home guard units, under auspices of Clement R. Bontemps Post, Hancock county. This is to take the place of national guardsmen, called to the colors by executive order.

This is noteworthy, commendable and speaks the patriotism of our own. It is thoughtful, timely and significant. Hancock county has never failed to rally to the flag, and always before the call is issued.

Hollywood Notes.

In a poll of Hollywood correspondents, Laraine Day, MGM starlet, was given the best prospect of reaching the top of the ladder in 1941. Runners-up were Rita Hayworth, Brenda Marshall, Maureen O'Hara and Mary Martin.

In her role in "Little Nelly Kelly," Judy Garland says, "Everything in the world happens to me. I die for the first time, I get married for the first time, I have a baby for the first time, I am kissed passionately for the first time." That's almost too much for the first time.

Told she was too fat when she started work at Metro, Ilona Massey proceeded to lose thirty pounds. Now she has been told she is too thin to play a costume role of Alexander Korda's "New Wine," and must add flesh to her arms and neck.

Clark Gable's magnificent car which he sold because it was too conspicuous is now doing service in Arabia, impressing the friends of a certain Arab chief.

Robert Taylor has two things to do in his next film, "Flight Command," that he doesn't like so well. He has to sing an aviator's jubilant song and shave of the mustache he has cultivated and prized since appearing in "Waterloo Bridge."

As a matter of fact, practically every leading man is having to take up warbling. Clark Gable, who sang "Polly Wolly Doodle" in "Boom Town," will sing again in "Comrade X." Melvyn Douglas sings in "Third Finger, Left Hand." Jimmy Stewart lends his voice to "Over the Rainbow," in "The Philadelphia Story." Even Cary Cooper has agreed to unbend sufficiently to have to go at "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" in "Meet John Doe."

Young Gene Eckman, Atlanta schoolboy, who was signed several months ago by MGM to play Jody in "The Yearling," is anxiously watching himself in the mirror. A trick clause in his contract causes him to forfeit the job if his face and figure show material changes by the time action starts, presumably next February. "Taint fair, we say."

Carole Lombard and Robert Montgomery will make their first appearance together in "Mr. and Mrs. Smith." Fans had hoped to see Carole and Clark Gable portray the "Mr. and Mrs. roles."

VOTE TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION.

On the ballots of the November election, which will be held November 8, there will be a proposed constitution amendment to be voted on.

This amendment has to do with the sale of the lieu lands of Pearl River and Hancock counties.

These lands of which there are 42,000 acres in Hancock and Pearl River counties, have been the subject of legislative controversy for many, many years. It has been held time and again that there was no law by which the counties owning these lands could sell them. However, Representatives Rester, of Hancock, and Stewart of Pearl River, counties succeeded in getting the two houses of the legislature to concur in a resolution to amend the Constitution of the state which would if elected at the November election, enable the owners of the lands to sell them after proper legislative action has been taken under the new amendment.

We are not as familiar with the history of the lieu lands as some of the old timers, but it is our understanding that some time after the Civil War a number of other counties in the state lost their 16th Sections by government grants. Sixteenth Sections being set aside for school purposes, cannot, under the constitution, be sold. However, the government, through ignorance of the law, or ignorance of the status of the lands took over and sold them to individuals. When the error was discovered, the counties so pliered were offered lands in other counties in lieu of the Sixteenth Section lands. At that time, Pearl River and Hancock counties were covered with dense forests of long leaf yellow pine timber and considered worthless. It was in these two counties, lands were granted in lieu of the 16th Section lands. They were set aside and the proceeds from anything sold from the lands in the way of timber or leases went into the Common School Funds of the counties owning the lieu lands. After all timber had been sold, the lands became the plunder of all who cared to pilfer them for what little wood or piling was left on them. As in the cases of 16th Section lands these lieu lands were not placed on the tax rolls. They could not be developed, because one could do more than lease them, and no one wanted to spend money improving leased lands. So the only way to get these lands on the assessment rolls was to amend the constitution so they could be sold by legislative action and thereby become private property, subject to taxation and development.

The late Rev. N. Breland told us shortly before his death that he was instrumental in getting the lieu lands located in Hancock county. That he realized then, that he had made a mistake and wanted to see them placed in private hands for development and assessment.

At the November election the people of Mississippi will have an opportunity to correct this error by electing the proposed amendment to the state constitution. Picayune Item.

CAPITOL ACTIVITIES

by WALKER WOOD
SECRETARY OF STATE

SEPTEMBER 25 and 26 has officially been named as "Mississippi State Horse Show Day," by Gov. Paul Johnson. This event, held annually for the past few years in Jackson, has attracted widespread attention, and steadily grown in popularity and attendance. The 1940 Horse Show is expected to exceed all others previously held.

Last week Governor Johnson leased to the U. S. Government 5,185 acres known as Camp Shelby, near Hattiesburg for $1.00 per acre. The government is to make a permanent army base there, and 42,000 National Guardsmen will begin training there just as soon as permanent barracks, base hospital and other facilities can be erected.

The annual convention of Certified Public Accountants was held in Jackson on September 14th. The Mississippi Society of Public Accountants is composed of approximately 60 of the leading accountants of the state.

There has been a steady increase in the tonnage of commercial fertilizers used in Mississippi according to Si Corley, Commissioner of Agriculture. For the year ending June 30, 1940, Commissioner Corley, reveals that 294,036 tons had been sold in this state. For the year ending June 30, 1939, the state used 285,666 tons, and the year ending June 30, 1938, the state used 265,182 tons.

The many friends of Col. Harry Landry, of Friars Point, will be glad to learn that he was re-elected President of the National Wrestling Association at the recent convention of the association at Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Carl Craig, State Tax Collector, has filed approximately 150 suits against highway contractors having worked on Mississippi highway construction and paving programs. The suits are for the collection of one per cent tax based on the gross proceeds received from contracts with the state highway department which Mr. Craig claims has never been paid and involves approximately $100,000.00.

During the week of September 9-14 the Boy Scouts of Jackson, had a color guard to lower the U. S. Flag at the New and Old Capitols each afternoon at 5 o'clock. This was in celebration of "Boy Scout Salute Week" being staged throughout the Nation.

The State Board of Election Commissioners met last week and selected the County Board of Election Commissioners for the eighty-two counties of Mississippi. The State Board is composed of Governor Paul B. Johnson, Attorney General L. Rice, and Secretary of State Walker Wood. The County Election Commission is composed of three members who serve for two years, September 1st, 1940 until August 31, 1942.

The many friends of W. W. Pierce, former Assistant Attorney General, will be glad to learn that he has been re-appointed as state director of the Brewers and Mississippi Beer Distributors for another year.

Secretary of State Walker Wood expects to attend the annual convention of the National Association of Securities Commissioners to be held at Dallas, Texas on October 8-9-10-11. Secretary Wood is confident that he will be able to secure the 1941 National Convention for the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Attorney General Greek L. Rice was out of his office during the week beginning September 9th. The General along with several other prominent Mississippi lawyers attended the annual convention of the American Bar Association which was held in the historic City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

PROVISIONS OF HOW THE DRAFT WILL WORK EXPLAINED IN A NUTSHELL UNDERSTANDABLE

Here is how the draft will work:

On October 16, all men 21 to 35, inclusive, will register at registration places to be established in each neighborhood.

Local boards—it is intended to have 6000 to 6500—will shuffle the registration cards and give each a number.

A series of numbers will be drawn in Washington by lot. When the first number is drawn, each man who has the corresponding number in a local board file will be put down as the first man liable for service from his local group.

Questionnaires then will be sent to the men, in the order in which their numbers were drawn, asking the number of dependents, physical disabilities, etc.

On the basis of this information, the men will be classified as follows: Class I (available for immediate service), class II (service deferred because engaged in essential occupation), class III (service deferred because of dependents), and class IV (service deferred by law—legislators, judges, etc.).

Meantime, a Washington board will determine a quota for each state, based on the population and number of men from that state already in the army or navy. From this quota, will be deducted the number of men who volunteer for a year's training.

Enough men will then be taken from class I in each state to fill out the quota. They will be called in the order in which their numbers were drawn in the national lottery.

Each man called will receive a physical examination. If he cannot meet army requirements, he will be passed over and the next man taken.

Men in the deferred class will not be called unless there are not enough class I men to meet the army's needs.

NEED 5,000 MEN FOR IMMEDIATE WORK AT CAMP SHELBY

Construction At Hattiesburg
Camp Will Cost $11,000-
000 Atlanta Reveals.

Hattiesburg Sept. 13.—Five thousand men are needed immediately to work on Camp Shelby, state National Guard base near here, which the War Department is developing into one of the main Army training centers under the national defense program.

J. E. Dennis, general superintendent for the J. A. Jones Construction Company of Charlotte, N. C. which has the building contract, announced today that work will begin early next week.

Mr. Dennis is asking all applicants for jobs to report to an employment office being built at the camp entrance. He said the building plans have been taken to Atlanta to the Fourth Corps Area offices for revision. The plans will be sent here Monday by special messenger.

It is estimated here that the government will spend about $11,000,000 on Camp Shelby. An allotment of $3,300,000 already has been announced by the War Department.

Atlanta, Sept. 23.—Fourth Corps Army headquarters announced today a building program totalling $11,000,000 for Camp Shelby, Miss. Construction will include:

Mickey Rooney Crashes Cafe Society in "Andy Hardy Meets Debutante"

Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney and the rest of the Hardy Family, plus golden-voiced Judy Garland, comes to the A. & G. Theater, Sunday and Monday in the ninth and latest of the popular series, "Andy Hardy Meets a Debutante."

The story takes them to New York, where Andy Hardy, son of the family, is faced with a problem very serious to him but full of laughs for everyone else. Back in Carvel he has become smitten with the pictures of a glamorous New York debutante and when his one-sided romance is discovered by his hometown sweetheart and his chums he answers their heckling by boasting that he really knows the debutante.

Called to New York.

Judge Hardy is called to New York to defend a law case involving the Carvel Orphanage and he takes the family with him, thus forcing Andy to actually meet the debutante and bring back proof of their friendship. He gets out of his predicament but only after he has turned Manhattan upside down and supplied hilarity galore.

In addition to the typical Hardy family comedy, the film has high points when Judge Hardy wins his important case from the best legal brains of New York and when he takes Andy to the Hall of Fame at New York University and convinces him by example that the snubs and sneers of his society should not disturb a real American boy. Together with Stone and Mickey, the other members of the "family" are the entertaining selves: Fay Holden as the lovable "Ma" Hardy; Sara Haden as school-teaching Aunt Milly and Cecilia Parker as Mickey's charming sister, Marian.

Judy Garland sings. Others in the cast are Dianna Lewis as the dazzling debutante and Ann Rutherford as Mickey's Carvel sweetheart.

Gulfport Rotarians Hear Talk On Value Of Newspaper Pictures.

Gulfport Rotarians heard an interesting talk on the value of pictures in newspapers and saw a group of prize-winning newspaper photos displayed by Hocking Carter, Greenville, Miss., newspaperman who has been associated with PM, New York newspaper, since it was organized several months ago.

The 30 pictures shown by Mr. Carter were greatly enlarged from small shots, each telling a story of humor or pathos. The speaker described the magazine PM as an experiment in the newspaper field, a publication which accepted no advertisement and depended solely on the sale of its copies for revenue.

Clayton Rand introduced Mr. Carter, reviewing his newspaper work in Louisiana and Mississippi.

Women get "Build-up"

A good way to relieve periodic discomfort from functional dysmenorrhea, due to menstruation, such as headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain, many women find is by using CARDUI. It usually sharpens appetite, increases flow of gastric juices, and so aids digestion, helps build resistance to periodic distress. Another way CARDUI may help you is take it a few days before and during "the time." CARDUI has been popular for 50 years.

ADDITION TO ST. ROSE SCHOOL

Two Class Rooms and Modernly-Equipped Kindergarten To Meet Increased Enrollment.

Work on the new addition to the school building of St. Rose de Lima colored parochial school is well progressed and Father Holken, pastor, states the new building will include two large class rooms in which an up-to-date and modernly-equipped kindergarten will be operated and several primary grades, the addition made necessary by the increasing enrollment which each new school session brings and in order to accommodate the children of the parish.

The added space also will enable the entire upper floor to be used by the high school and give better accommodations to the students and enable the chemistry and literary department to be located upstairs where it will be more convenient for the fifty-four high school students registered this year.

The contract for the building was let to Raphael Favre and Edward Heitzman, Sr., is in charge of the electrical wiring.

City Police Has Big Task Located at High And Central Schools.

City Officer Alcine Saucier is in charge of the Central and High school section of the city and has quite a task on his hands during the day, guiding and protecting the young from hazards and all possible street and auto dangers. The task is not only of morning, noon and afternoon hours, but all days during various periods.

The playgrounds are located across the street with the highway intervening. In order to accommodate the crowded condition of the school pupils are let out at times while others occupy the study and recreation rooms.

After school hours the various buses are to be loaded and it is Officer Saucier's duty to see that every child is safely conducted to the bus, seated and that none are left behind.

Quite an all-day task, but he is fully capable to take care of this responsibility.

HARRISON INFORMS COLLEAGUES HE IS CANDIDATE IN 1942

Senator Pat Harrison smilingly told Majority Leader Barkley he was a candidate for re-election two years hence during discussion of the excess profits bill in the Senate.

"I may say," Harrison chairman of the Senate finance committee told his colleagues, "that this legislation beats anything I have encountered in all my experience—which has not been so short, and I hope it will be longer."

Barkley laughingly inquired "Is this an announcement of re-election?"

"It can be taken as an announcement for re-election," Harrison replied.

BAY HIGH TIGERS TO PLAY

This Friday Evening Opposite Long Beach Team—Possible Line-Up.

The Bay High Tigers will open the football season Friday, September 20 at 8:00 P. M., when they meet the Long Beach team in St. Stanislaus Stadium.

Head Coach George Westerfield has the team in fine shape and says he "expects to develop a good team, barring injuries, before very long." Our greatest trouble is in having such small and inexperienced material; however, the boys are showing plenty of fight and spirit and if they keep it up should develop into a formidable team.

Competition Keen

There are several boys competing for each berth on the team, almost all of which were left empty by graduation and Coach Westerfield stated that "who is to fill them when the whistle blows Friday night depends upon these last few days of workouts before the game."

Those competing for the Varsity positions who are the most probable to be in the starting line-up are: left end, Charles Murphy; right end, Oscar Bragg and Pat Murphy; tackles, Anthony Trenticosta, Curtis Miller, and Howell Russ; centers, Charles Murphy and Sylvester Pagano; guards, Bert Capdepon, Bennie Starita, Junior Favre, and Lawrence Starita; quarter back Fred Capdepon and Milton Phillips; fullback, Roy Horrying, Lawrence Chiono; halfbacks, Pat Horrying, C. C. McDonald, Jr., Willys Rhodes and J. W. Parker.

Not a Mystery ... but a Thriller Just the Same!

HERE'S A NEW "crime doesn't pay" story, being written day by day in the records of the Brewers and Mississippi Beer Distributors Committee.

Each chapter is a story in itself. The characters are the same, and the solution is identical; the legal beer industry aids state and local law enforcement authorities in "cleaning up or closing up" law-violating retail outlets licensed to sell beer—but selling it under anti-social conditions.

Here's the record of the committee's cooperation with authorities, brought up to date:

14 Beer Permits Revoked
22 Excessive Beer Supply Shut Off
288 Warnings Issued
70 Outlets Corrected Objectionable Conditions

The great majority of beer retailers operate decent, respectable establishments. YOU can help us banish the "jook joint" by patronizing only the wholesome places where beer is sold.
